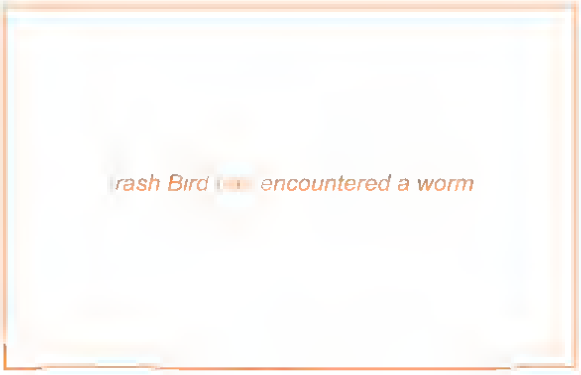
TRASH



rash Bird encountered a worm

Please don't eat me.

Listen
I might be a bird, but I have self-respect and I don't eat gross bugs

I'm gross?
You're literally standing in a pile of trash. I wouldn't eat you either

So I guess we're kinda friends then

I guess we are

And so Trash Bird and the worm became kinda friends

Next time you think someone is too gross to eat, give them a chance and maybe you will become kinda friends too
